

Debra Lynn Roering

June 24, 1965 - August 29, 2015

Debbie was born on June 24, 1965 in Milwaukee to John and Lottie Andruscavage and she grew up in a largely rural area of Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin. Her loving, outgoing personality was obvious right from the start and she was the kind of person that simply loved people – and they loved her right back. Debbie grew up loving the outdoors and she did so her entire life. She reveled in many family camping trips to northern Wisconsin and national parks across the country and, in recent years, she cherished the many trips she took with her husband, Bard, up to her parents' lakeside home in Tomahawk, Wisconsin. After graduating from Menomonee Falls East High School in 1983, Deb had several different administrative occupations including as a medical insurance underwriter. Later, she received paramedic training. But her many health issues over the years prevented her from fulfilling all of her career aspirations. Deb loved sports and was especially passionate about the Green Bay Packers and NASCAR. She also always enjoyed partying with her friends and family. She was compassionate and loyal, always willing to help others in need. Deb was firm in her faith in her savior, Our Lord Jesus Christ. She is home now in His loving arms and is also reunited with her father, John B. Andruscavage, who passed away in 2005.

Debra is survived by her loving husband Bard of Brown Deer, her dearest mother Lottie (nee Tokarska) Andruscavage, and her dearest brother Tom (Leslie) Andrews of Hartford, her loving nephews, Matt (Amanda)

Andruscavage of Caldonia, John (Julie) Andruscavage of New Berlin, and her great nieces and nephew, Audrey, Chloe and James. Also surviving is her father and mother in law, Donald and Cleo Roering and other relatives and friends. Debra is preceded in death by her father John B. Andruscavage.
