“ Sincere condolences for your tragic loss. Cherish loving memories of times spent together, and may those memories bring you joy and warm your heart. Death is an enemy of mankind, and it has a devastating effect on family and friends. But, can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline: "DEATH IS NO MORE!!!!!!!" Wouldn't that be a wonderful time? That very promise is found at Revelation 21:4, it says "and he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more....". Along with that promise, Acts 24:15 holds out the hope of the resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in death. As you grieve, may Jehovah, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials (2 Corinthians 1:3,4), comfort you in your time of need. (tall chea@att.net)

“ Dearest family of Robert, I was deeply shocked to hear of his death. He was a regular visitor of my workplace and I helped him often. I pray that he will rest in peace and that God will shower him with many blessings.

“ To the Fruend family, it has been many years since Paul or I have seen you all, we were shocked to hear about Bob's death. I think back to all the times when we were in school together and the friendships we made. You have our deepest sympathies and our fondest memories of the past. Take care Lee Ann(Lehman)Heiden & Paul Lehman
