

Viola P. Troeller

January 7, 1908 - March 14, 2012

Viola P. Troeller, of Wellington Place in Hartford, passed away Wednesday, March 14, 2012 at the age of 104 years. She was born January 7, 1908 in Milwaukee, the daughter of Erich and Caroline (nee Dotter) Tesch.

When she was a child, her family moved from Milwaukee to Jackson where her parents farmed. She went to school in Jackson, and in high school for three years in West Bend. Viola needed to leave school to care for her mother who took ill. Later she worked as a nanny or a mother's helper for many years. Viola worked at the Jackson Co-Op Creamery where she met her husband, Walter. They were married in 1936 in Jackson and moved to Walter's family farm in the township of Hartford. She was a charter choir member of Trinity Ev. Lutheran Church, and a long-time member. Together they farmed for 33 years; however, she stayed at the family farm home until 2004.

She is preceded in death by her husband Walter, her sisters Gladys Arnold, Leoneze Rheingans and Verdie Lenz, and her brother Ardell Tesch.

Viola is survived by her children Carolyn Louise (Edward) Grudzinski of Hartford, Myrna (Ozzie) Cikanek of Hartford, Thomas W. (Judy) Troeller of West Bend and Jeanine (Floyd) Gable of Hartford, 11 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren and 5 great-great-grandchildren.

Visitation Monday, March 19, 2012 from 12:30 – 2:30 PM at Trinity Ev. Lutheran Church, Huilsburg. Funeral Service will follow at 2:30 PM at the Church. Rev. Daniel Falck will officiate.

Memorials to Trinity Ev. Lutheran Church or the charity of your choice in Viola's name would be appreciated.

A special heartfelt thank you to Wellington Place for their compassion and loving care, and especially to Judy Breuer for her special care.

The Berndt-Ledesma Funeral Home is serving the family.

“ To the Troeller Family:

I am deeply sorry that you have lost your dear mother, Mrs. Troeller. I know that this is a time where you are really 'crushed in spirit' to have her leave you, because we all want to live and we desire to be with the ones we love forever. Our heavenly Father created us this way, to live and enjoy life. But because of sin, we die. (Romans 5:12) Yet that is not the end of our life. Because of the hope of the resurrection, all in the grave will be reunited with their dear loved ones to enjoy life as it was intended. (Acts twenty-four verse fifteen)

May each of you find comfort in knowing that when 'death is swallowed up forever', you will have the opportunity to be reunited with your loved ones. (Isaiah twenty-five verse eight)

“ My condolences at this time of great sorrow. Your relatives from northern Wisconsin grieve with you and wish you peace in these coming days. We, Elaine Dotter and myself, wished we could have made it to the funeral but Elaine wasn't feeling the best and I didn't have the use of a vehicle (car accident). Still, you all are in our prayers and if you need someone to talk to, we are here for you. Elaine can be reached at 715.453.3979 and I can be reached at 715.255.8734 or at kevin.popp@hotmail.com. Once again, please accept our heartfelt condolences and may God Bless you.

“ We have so many memories of Grandma. She had the best smile and we always enjoyed her kisses. Thank You for allowing us to care and love Grandma, and being a part of your entire family!
